Truckee Baseball Team Improved For Second Half

Placer JACL Coming Here Sunday for Game With Locals

The Truckee Mountaineers continued their losing streak Sunday by dropping the first game of the second half in the Placer-Nevada League 8 to 4 to the Auburn Cubs. In so doing, however, they put on an exhibition of bangup baseball which kept fans in a turmoil from start to finish.

Southpaw Bert Munson turned in a good job and was backed up in the field by a fighting team, constantly on their toes and always threatening the early lead gained by the visitors. The four errors were not too serious and were offset by a spirit to win.

Dutra, the visiting southpaw chucker, was in good trim and whiffed 17 Truckee batters. A threatened rally in the 9th, when Truckee had three men on, one man walked in and two outs resulted in Dutra being lifted for Stan Pomin, who fanned Munson for the final putout.

Bud Owens, who went in as a pinch hitter for Stark in the seventh, batted in two of Truckee's runs when he sent the ball high over the right field fence for a ground-rule two base hit.

Eddie Ulsheimer, who is occupying the second sack, played errorless ball and started two fast double plays that would have been a credit in any league. Ulsheimer, Giovannoni and Wakefield each hit singles, Campbell getting one for three to lead his teammates in percentage. Dutra and Hanson for the visitors and Owens hit doubles and home runs were scored by Bernal and Marshall for Auburn.

Truckee had 11 men left on base to Auburn's 5.

Two or three close decisions at first base caused some trouble among the fans and Palo, the base umpire, had a bit of criticism tossed his way.

Pomin, Auburn's relief chucker, is leaving the Cubs to rejoin his family at Tahoe City and was signed Sunday by Manager John Rau to a Mountaineer contract.

Next week Truckee meets the JACL team from Penryn and if thesame brand of baseball is played next Sunday, there should be a full crowd as the local boys are out there fighting hard every inch of the way.

The complete score of last Sunday's game will be found on Page five of this issue.

Hospital Project Will Provide Fun For Community

Sunday, June 29, will be cleanup day at the Tahoe Forest Hospital.

Administrator John Wardman is sponsoring what is hoped will result in a series of community get-togethers for the purpose of improving the landscaping at the hospital grounds, particularly in the rear where patients' rooms look out over the area proposed to be beautified.

Starting June 29 at 9 o'clock, every family and individual in the district is invited to go to the hospital armed with picks, shovels, rakes, hoes, pickup trucks and trailers. There will be work and fun for all, Wardman declared in outlining the program.

Each family is asked to bring a picnic dinner or dish for a pot-luck meal. The hospital will supply the coffee and milk.

It is proposed to plant shrubs, trees and plant flowers and grass. Wardman said the idea has proven both beneficial and entertaining in other centers and asks that it be tried out here. The various service clubs, women's clubs and others will be contacted to assist but the program is designed for everyone wishing to see the hospital in a more beautiful setting.

The administrator pointed out that the hospital itself is a community project and therefore the community should have a continued interest in its development.

The building contract did not include landscaping to any extent so that problem remains to be handled and under the circumstances and with limited resources, Wardman hopes to have at least some of the work done through voluntary methods.

Work On Bank Slated To Start Here Next Week

Local Area Builders Will Be Given Chance On Project

L. J. Hendy, architect and division manager of the construction department of the Capital Company of San Francisco, this week announced that a building permit has been issued by Nevada County for remodeling of the former California Cafe at Bridge and Commercial Row into a modern banking premise.

Construction is planned to start Monday and is expected to be completed early in September and will house the Truckee branch of Bank of America, which has purchased the property from Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Polyanich.

Hendy said the company will employ as many local contractors and laborers as possible, sub-letting to various trades locally as far as possible. Materials, too, will be purchased here, he said.

The Bank of America will occupy over 5,000 square feet of area. A large, doubly reinforced concrete vault 15 by 28 feet will be constructed for the bank's use for keeping and safe deposit customers. One feature there will be an automatic ventilating device.

Banking features will be of modern design constructed of west coast mahogany with black micarta from Honduras. Panels in the screen line will be of double processed plate glass, with bronze wicket gates at the tellers' windows.

A special safe deposit lobby will be erected adjacent to the vault entrance and will be equipped with private booths for use of customers. The room will be acoustically treated and lighted by flourescent, slim-line pipe fixtures. A centrally located heating plant and ventilating system will be installed. Double entrance doors will open on Commercial Row.

Installation of speed limit signs along Highway 40 west of here may not be popular with all motorists but with the volume and speed of traffic increasing annually, the action was decided upon as a necessity. The nature of the district is such that motorists, unfamiliar with the area, are apt to go too fast, not realizing that a school, hospital, a business section and scores of homes line the route. Wrecks which have been too frequent in the vicinity should be eliminated and pedestrians may not be forced to jump from in front of speeding vehicles as they go to or from their homes.

* * * *

The cleanup program, community style, planned by the new hospital administrator to beautify the hospital grounds should find favor in the area. People should continue to realize that the hospital is not a commercial venture, but one planned and erected for the benefit of the whole district. There is nothing lacking in the building or its equipment and services. Those details were carefully outlined and have been executed to give us one of the best and most modern institutions of its kind. However, beautification and continued care is another matter and we hope that on Sunday, June 29, there will be a big turnout to assist in the work and enjoy the fun.

Mrs. G. D. Kamp was lay delegate from the local congregation.

STATE TO OPEN BIDS ON JULY 8 FOR LOCAL JOB

Frank B. Durkee, director of public works, announced today that bids will opened in Sacramento Tuesday, July 8, for the erection and completion of an inspection station for the state department of agriculture to be located near Truckee.

The station will contain an inspection unit, office, contraband room and lavatory facilities. Construction will be wood frame, concrete foundation and floor slab, wood siding and metal roof.

A bid for $89,400 submitted last week by Rex N. Jensen of Sacramento for the local project was rejected on two counts. First, because it was the only bid submitted and, secondly, because the amount exceeded the architect's estimate.

For that reason, new bids to be opened July 8 were requested. Local contractors are invited to enter bids.

REPAIRS OF ROAD TO COST $130,000

The state highway commission has voted $130,000 to repair damage done on Highway 40 between Forebay and Donner Lake and between Boca and the Sierra County line. The project lists 25 miles of highway scheduled for repair.

LIEUT. GOV. KNIGHT

KNIGHT SPEAKER AT LOCAL MEET OF 20 - 30 CLUB

Lieut. Gov. Goodwin J. Knight spoke before an audience composed of representatives of the 20-30, Lions, Rotary and American Legion at Donner Lake Lodge last Friday evening. He was introduced by Douglas Barrett and L. W. (Skip) Ferdinand, 20-30 Club president, presided.

Knight, who that evening was actually acting governor of California in the absence of Gov. Earl Warren from the state, reviewed many of the problems of state government and touched briefly on the background of the coming presidential elections. Prior to the dinner, he spent considerable time visiting informally with local residents.

Following his talk, he and his party motored to Lake Tahoe where they spent the night, going on to Dunsmuir and eventually Eureka on their current tour of the mountain areas of the state. Traveling with the lieutenant governor were Robert G. Alderman, his executive secretary, and Charles Warrell, highway patrol officer, who was doing the driving on the 4,000 mile trip over the state.

Knight said he felt the trip was successful in that it brought many local rural problems more forcibly to his attention and made him better acquainted with the people of the areas visited, which should make it easier for them to discuss their problems with him in the future.

In his remarks following the dinner Friday night, the state's "assistant governor" emphasized that there are three essentials for success in politics—as well as in any other field of endeavor—"integrity, health and good common sense." He added that a healthy sense of humor helps a lot too.

Officers Enforce New Speed Zone In Local District

Installation of 35-mile and 25-mile speed limit signs between Donner Monument and the east approach to Truckee on Highway 40 has resulted in scores of citations being issued by officers of the California Highway Patrol, who have announced they will continue to enforce the law.

The signs were installed recently by the division of highways and are designed to prevent excessive speed along the fast growing area between the monument and east Truckee. The new high school, the hospital, Gateway Park Shopping Center and a score or more of homes with intersecting streets border the highway in the area signed.

The Pacific Greyhound lines nearly a year ago inaugurated a 35-mile speed limit in the area now posted.

A number of accidents have occurred in the region and pedestrians have had many narrow escapes as there are portions of the populated area where vision is restricted for any distance. Many motorists have used the stretch between the monument and Truckee as a speedway in the past. A 25-mile limit applies through the Truckee business section.

At Lake Tahoe also, the zoned areas where speed is restricted to 25 or 35 miles an hour, enforcement will be continued, the patrol announced.

TAHOE GUN CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL MEET THIS WEEK

"Whitey" Shugart of Las Vegas; H. E. Holcomb, San Bernardino and big winner at Reno; Tom Sutton, Ray Sorensen, H. E. McCoskey, Rayburn, Bill Martin and Joe King of Kings Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Don Neighbors, Yerington; George Meyers, Carson City, and many others from all parts of the west.

The Lake Tahoe Gun Club is rapidly becoming very popular and in the near future should develop into one of the best trapshooting clubs in the country.

The Calcutta drawing and buffet dinner for all contestants and their wives will be held at Ta-Neva-Ho Saturday evening, June 21, at 9 p.m.

Tahoe Chamber, Association Join Forces At Meet

Committees Will Study Future Plans In District

BROCKWAY— Tentative consolidation of the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association and the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce into a proposed Lake Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce was effected at a meeting of members of both organizations here last Friday.

The joining of the two major booster organizations at the lake culminated a number of committee meetings during which it was determined that combined efforts to promote year-'round activities and development of the region would serve a common interest.

H. O. Comstock, president of the association for many years, accepted the chairmanship of an interim committee composed of 24 members, 12 from each organization, to draw up a working schedule and complete details of the unification. Members will be advised of progress of this committee.

On this committee from the chamber of commerce will be Harry Stubley, George Canon, C. W. Vernon, Charles B. Cross, Preston Burroughs, Kenneth Amundson, Neal Olson, Franklin Rohbeck, Don Huff, Jobe Lewis and Tom Sutton. Representing the association will be Ernie Pomin, Fred Main, William Bechdolt, Will Bliss, George Phillips, George Kehlet, Norman Celio, Harriett Craven, Harvey Gross, Alex Cushing, Kjell Rustad and Comstock.

Burroughs was appointed chairman of the highway committee, Will Bliss the water conference committee and Vernon was named treasurer, to be assisted by Comstock, Huff and Stubley. Kehlet was named to head the advertising and publicity department.

As soon as the reorganization has been effected, officers will be named and members will be mailed ballots with two nominees for each office and the interim committee will then cease to function.

Comstock, who presided at the meeting, attended by more than 100, introduced Arthur Dudley, veteran Sacramento Chamber of Commerce official, who was the principal speaker and highly commended the two groups in their consolidation move.

The committee will meet again June 26 to continue the program which has started so enthusiastically.

THE muskies and the lake trout come big up around Hudson, in northern Ontario on the trans-continental line of the Canadian National Railways, an area long popular with American fishermen who want action and lots of it. In addition to muskies and lake trout, black bass, pike and pickerel are plentiful in the Big Vermillion, Little Vermillion and the many other lakes reached through Hudson.

New Vets' Hospital Begun At Fort Funston

SAN FRANCISCO— First steps in the construction of a new 1000-bed $20,000,000 neuro-psychiatric hospital for veterans, to be located at Fort Funston, were taken here this week.

A team of bulldozers moved onto the 120-acre site just south of Fleishhacker Zoo to commence demolition of 30 underground fortifications, razing of old barracks and clearing of countless trees.

Untouched in the clearing job will be the big 16-inch gun emplacements.

When completed the new hospital will be the third of its kind in California. It was authorized in 1946 but not until May of this year was the first contract, for grading, let. The job is being done under a $382,000 contract by Foster and McHarg of Rivreside.

OLD "REPUBLICAN" PAGES MIRROR TRUCKEE OF 1909

by DOUG BARRETT

Th eR. E. Smarts are remodeling at their home on Church Street and this week workmen found two badly battered front pages of the Truckee Semi-Weekly Republican for September, 1909, reposing between the walls.

The mailing stamp showed they had been sent to John Fay, the subscription rate was $4 a year and instead of the present "six to 14 pages plus comics" once a week, the Republican consisted of four pages, each six columns wide published Wednesday and Saturday.

Although badly torn and generally damaged, the two relics turned up some interesting notes on our town in September 43 years ago.

A large ad on page 1 proclaimed "Groceries—The Kind that Give Satisfaction," as sold by Smith & Englehart, "Quality Grocers," the same being former Judge C. E. Smith and "Bottling Bill" Englehart Sr. in 1952—and still in Truckee.

Schools Closed

Apparently, schools here were closed for two weeks out of respect for a current scarlet fever epidemic and all families were being warned to fumigate clothes and books and keep children home. The Republican commented, in the later edition, "The manner in which the disease was handled and its quick extermination from our town speaks well for the health officers who had the cases in hand."

A major story was the announcement of a big barbecue and picnic at Prosser Creek on Septembre 19. The affair was sponsored by Ernie Curtis, a Truckee band was to play for dancing and the barbecue was to be free.

Of current national interest was an item on the death of Edward H. Harriman, railroad tycoon, who had only a short time before passed away in his New York home. Today, in 1952, his son, W. Averill Harriman, is a leading Democratic candidate for president of the United States.

Doctors and Lawyers

The professional card columns listed three doctors — G. Waldo Bryant, J. Gordon Mackay and J. H. Bernard — and three attorneys — C. F. and J. F. McGlashan and F. M. Rutherford — practicing in Truckee. Dr. G. F. Kelley, "over P.O.," was listed as a dentist.

Fraternal cards listed the following officers of lodges:

Truckee Aerie 1124, FOE: Wm. Englehart, pres.; I. F. Harvey, secretary.

Summit Lodge 54, Knights of Pythias: Julius Lichtenberger, C. C.; C. W. Long, KRS.

Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 2: Eliza Campbell, NG; Minnie Dambel, secty.

Truckee Chapter 116, O.E.S.: Mary S. Rutherford, WM; Mary Morrill, secty.

Sierra Nest 154, Order of Owls: Hary Fitzgerald, pres.; Pual Hachten, secty.

Truckee Camp 642, WOW: H. B. Williams, CC; J. F. Adolph, clerk.

Father Thomas E. Horgan, pastor, announced "Mass will be celebrated in the Truckee Catholic Church each second and fourth Sunday of the month at ten a.m. Sunday school at eleven."

Mrs. White Vacations

There were numerous items and ads of interest, including personal notes that "Mrs. Charles White is spending her vacation in Glenn Alpine. She is expected home this week" or "Mrs. Alexander Gillespie and Mrs. Dr. Bernard left for San Francisco Sunday night where they expect to shop for several dyas. They then go to Portland by boat and from there to Seattle to attend the fair. They expect to be gone a month or more."

Another item reported steel for the new Masonic building on Front Street (Commercial Row) was due to arrive and, as all other materials were at hand, it was expected the structure would be ready for finishing touches in a few weeks.

Still another article told of the arrival of 45 caroads of ties and three of accessory materials for the laying of new double railroad track between Truckee and Reno. A nearby ad told of motor car daily service between Truckee and Sparks, with two round trips each day.

In spite of their battered condition, the two old front pages hold a great deal of local trivia of nineteen-ought-nine and are being kept on file in the Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican office in the "new" Masonic building for possible future reference.

Only a few breeding pairs of trumpeter swans were known to remain in North America by 1929.

SACRAMENTO MAN, MISSING A WEEK, IS FOUND AT TAHOE

TAHOE CITY— At 7 a.m. Sunday Tahoe Inn called Constable Harry Johanson of Tahoe City to pick up a man wandering aimlessly about. He was crying and complaining of a terrific headache. Examination showed a large knot on his head and he appeared to have been beaten up.

A driver's license in his pocket gave the name of Roland Milton Stegner of Sacramento. A call to his home by the constable was answered by the man's wife who said he had been listed as "missing" for nearly a week. His car and $200 which he carried are still unaccounted for.

Johanson believes Stegner was beaten, robbed and thrown from his car onto some local highway and eventually wandered to Tahoe Inn. Johanson placed him in a warm cell at the local jail on the lakeshore and put him to bed until his wife arrived around noon to take him home.

He later told Sacramento officials he could remember only that he had picked up a hitchhiker whom he believes was in uniform. He also remembers waking up on the floor of his automobile and again while lying on sand but does not know how long he remained unconscious or the length of the intervals between. He said the last thing he could remember was driving through William Land Park in Sacramento the preceding Monday.

Mrs. Veta Owen, executive secretary, said that they hope this year's survey will produce a record number of films.

"Will everyone plan to take advantage of this service and have a free chst X-ray when the unit visits your community?" she asks. "Time and location will be announced in plenty of time."

This service is paid for with funds received from the sale of Christmas Seals.

"These new deluxe buses," Ackerman said, "represent another forward step in our current 'Greyhound Rolls Ahead' campaign."

$200,000 SUIT FILED OVER PROPERTY DISPUTE AT BIJOU

PLACERVILLE— Bijou Park Properties Inc. this week asked $200,000 damages in an El Dorado County superior court lawsuit, alleging the defendants cast doubt on its title to Lake Tahoe beach property and conspired to void a sale of the holdings.

Named as defendants are William Crocker, S. J. Bodilson, Margaret Cunningham, William A. Young, E. H. Bray, Charles G. Johnston, Frank E. Britten, R. I. Anderson, Robert Lattin, and 11 unidentified persons.

The complaint asserts the plaintiff company started negotiations in August 1949 for the sale of Recreation Beach and in May 1950 contracted to sell the property to John Seagraves.

Defendants Crocker, Lattin, Young, Bray, Johnston, Britton and Anderson own lots in Bijou Park on which they operate commercial ventures, the complaint asserts, and have denied the use of the beach to the public. It also is charged they ronspired to obtain easements onto the beach to enhance the value of their holdings.

The complaint declares the actions of the defendants has caused ment and the negotiations with the plaintiff company embarrass-Seagrave to become endangered. It is is also charged they made false representations to Seagrave in a effort to halt the sale.

Th esuing firm asks $100,000 as compensation and an equal amount as punitive damages.

Theft of Pint of Whiskey Brings Man $25 Fine

TAHOE CITY— Constable Harry Johanson reports that James D. Bearch, Reno, found it was cheaper to buy his liquor at Tahoe than to steal it. He was taken before Judge C. W. Vernon Friday, June 13, and fined $25 for appropriating a pint of whiskey from a local store. The bottle was noticed protruding from beneath some magazines Bearch was carrying and the constable was called. Even the finest whiskey, Bearch learned, does not cost $25.

Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, June 15

Dear Tahoeites:

Today has been a beautiful one at Tahoe. The lake region is coming into its own at last and on all sides there are wild flowers—pink manzanita bells, pale lavender squaw carpet, indian paint brush, firey red snow plant, yellow wyethia, clusters of pale cream snowbush with its cloying odor and the acrid scent of chokecherry, among dozens of others.

The lake is again dotted with fishing boats and speedboats too can be heard at all hours. Bud Scott has started his busy summer and today he took for rides mem b-ers of the Tavern convention, the first of the season. His big cruiser is being taken out of mothballs and tuned up for operation in the very near future. Heavy traffic has been noted during the past few weeks, with licences from all over the United States, Canada and Mexico. Speaking of cars reminds me that a new ruling will go into effect in Tahoe City as soon as the signs have been posted on the main street. Patrolman Tom Sheehan told me that following posting of the signs, all those who park within the triangular area by the big tree in town will be given tickets. So watch for the new signs and don't offend.

Charlie Swanson last week went for a visit with daughter and her family in Saratoga but before going he tried for days to catch some nice trout to take along with him, without success—and he has fished these waters, successfully, for over 30 years. In desperation he went out to Lake Forest and hired Waldo Gross (who has acquired an enviable reputation as a fishing guide) to take him out in his boat. The water was a bit rough but the pair came back later in the day with a limit of mackinaw, 3½ and 4 pounders. Swanson is doffing his sombrero respectfully to Gross, who certainly seems to know where the fish are.

Tahoe residents and visitors were treated to the annual Yuba City high school band concert put on last Saturday night in front of Jack and Dinty's in town. The youngster's were accompanied by their instructor and leader, Wilson McRae and played a number of lively and well-rendered selections, receiving as applause a round of auto horns, as cars lined up across the street while occupants listened. The group spent several days at a local resort vacationing.

Had a lovely letter from Mrs. Charles Warner, who was still a patient at Tahoe Forest Hospital with new little son Dennis Cecil. She was still undergoing tests and taking treatments for some newly acquired complications which arose but was feeling fine and eager to get home to Tahoe. She was enjoying having her baby in her room, a move necessitated because their elder son, Chickie, had come down with measles at home and the hospital wanted to avoid any possible trouble in the nursery. Mrs. Warner could not say enough lovely things about the hospital staff, the care she was receiving and the excellent food. The doctors and nurses came in for their share of high praise too, and, like the Marines, Diana says, despite occasionla short-handedness, they always manage to meet the situation and keep it well in hand. She also praised the Tahoe ambulance service which rendered such prompt service and all of the good friends who stood by, ready to come to her aid if needed. Charlie's daughter, Mrs. Miles Peterson of Reno, who was accompanied by her son, Boyd, came over and kept house for the family while Diana was in the hospital. Also known as Margie Warner, Mrs. Peterson has a dance studio carrying her name which she has closed for the summer, following a highly successful recital. She visited for a week here and then returned to Reno. Mrs. Fosten Record replaced her as housekeeper. I think we will all join in endorsing Mrs. Warner's sentiments regarding the grand new hospital and its highly efficient staff. It's one of those blessings for which we are truly grateful and wonder how we ever got along without. Mrs. Warner and the new baby returned home, I just learned, the early part of the week and are continuing to do nicely.

Had a pleasant note from my old friend, Bishop Noel Porter of Sacramento, who writes that he and Mrs. Porter expect to arrive for the summer season at their home on the lakeshore near the Tavern on Thursday, June 19. Summer services at the beautiful outdoor chapel in the pines will start on Sunday, June 29, at 11 a.m. It was planned to open the chapel on the 19th but damage done to the pews due to the heavy winter snows necessitated some repairs not expected. A cordial welcome is extended to members of all denominations, as services are nonsectarian.

Mrs. Ethel Hancock (the former Mrs. Atherton of Tahoe City) drove over to Reno with her friend, Mrs. Verna Garner, to host a Father's Day dinner for her dad, W. A. Simmonds of the Bittencourt Tract, who will be 88 years old on July 1. Mrs. Simmonds was also a member of the quartet which enjoyed a tasty repast at popular Conger's. Bert Scott of Piedmont, up for a few days preparing the family summer home for reopening for the season, enjoyed his father's day dinner at Cal-Neva with his son and daughter-in-law, the Bud Scotts. The elder Scotts will arrive for the season on June 25 this year.

An impromptu party was tendered the Stan Martins of the Sierra Pacific Power Company here last Wednesday night, when the gang discovered they were due to depart for their new home in Lovelock, Nev., where Stan is now superintendent for the power company in that district. Mrs. Martin was taken for dinner at Tahoe Inn by a group of local ladies. Stan went to Lions Club in Truckee that evening and upon returning home, he found an old fashioned going away party in full swing. Bill Bechdolt, manager of the Inn, toasted these well liked folks who have been stationed at Tahoe City around 25 years, to champagne and a jolly evening of refreshments and visiting ensued. A lovely sterling silver platter was given them as a memento, inscribed with the words, "To Ila and Stan from their friends at Tahoe." It was a gala evening, one which dozens of others would have loved to share had they known, but was also poignant with the pain of parting, for the Martins are solid citizens, long active in every social and civic movement in the area. They may be gone but they will never be forgotten.

I attended the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association and Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce amalgamation meeting at Brockway Hotel on Friday, joining Cary Raymond, secretary of the chamber; Ethel Clarke, Tahoe Valley; Mrs. Bill Jenkinson, Tahoe City, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Funk of Meeks Bay Stables at their table. I believe everyone was gratified at the consolidation of these two active organizations, which have operated in the past with the same purpose in view — the advertising and promoting of Lake Tahoe and environs as the coast's finest summer and winter playground. Harry Comstock, association president who presided, started the meeting off with a friendly welcome to the chamber members and visitors who attended over 100 strong, and invited all to join the new organization and work for the good of the lake and all concerned. I believe this is Tahoe's chance to put the lake on the map in a big way and with all members working in wholehearted and sincere cooperation this world-famed area should really come into its own.

Will ring off for the week, wishing one and all a cheery adios. As ever, Swanee.

The new J. Kvistberg home at Lake Tahoe is completed, replacing one razed by fire last year. The family has come up from Burlingame to occupy it for the summer.

MAKE RECORD CATCH, ANGLERS RESCUE DOE FROM TAHOE WATERS

TAHOE CITY— When Fred Thompson, who owns a home in Tahoe Park, and a companion went out to fish last Thursday in their boat, they expected to bring back mackinaw or such. But this was not the case.

As they reached a spot about half a mile out, the two men encountered, swimming desperately and near exhaustion, a mother deer. With some difficulty, they managed to get the frightened animal into their boat and headed for shore. There they sent for the game warden, Tom Borneman of Truckee, who with Everett Robinson of Auburn, a visitor at the lake that day, came over to examine the nearly dead deer. They believed it had been hit by a car on the highway and had taken to the lake water in fright.

After covering the shivering doe in blankets, it remained for about half an hour and then wandered out of the open door and back into the woods. At last reports it had disappeared back into its native haunts and presumably was all right.

Over 400 at Opening Of Inn "Room"

TAHOE CITY— The grand opening of the new Peg Room on last Saturday night at Tahoe Inn was a huge success, with over 400 persons enjoying the evening. Host Bill Bechdolt and his dad, Carl Bechdolt Sr., were on hand to welcome the huge crowd which packed the premises, enjoyed the free champagne and refreshments, with carnations for the ladies and cigars for the men.

Home for Summer—

Miss Blodwyn Tiffee, who has been attending college at Sacramento, has returned home to Tahoe City for the summer vacation.

ways to be a friendly telephone neighbor

If yours is a party-line, your telephone neighbors will consider you a real friend if you'll keep these simple points in mind: Try not to tie up the line with lengthy conversations. That way you won't miss important incoming calls. Ask the youngsters to be considerate, too. When they remember that others may be waiting to use the line they're being good party-line neighbors. Always be sure you hang up properly after calling. These simple suggestions mean still better service . . . because they give every one a better chance to receive and make calls.

emergency calls may arise while you're on the line. If a telephone neighbor breaks in and explains the emergency, it's always thoughtful to hang up and complete your call later.

PEDATORY BEETLE HELPS COMBAT PINE BARK PESTS

TAHOE CITY— On a recent visit to Lake Tahoe, officers of Tahoe National Forest were somewhat alarmed at the number of pine trees falling prey to bark beetles. These small beetles kill the trees by burrowing in the cambium layer.

Upon examination, the infested trees were found to harbor a beetle new to the paryt. He looks a little like a cucumber beetle, has a red belly and a yellow band across his back. A check with Dr. Paul Keen, professional entomologist, discloses that the new arrival is a red bellied clerid, more specifically known as "Enoclerus Speghus."

Far from being an enemy, he feeds on bark beetles in all stages of development, from egg to adult. Dr. Keen states that the clerid is always present where bark beetles are common but usually in such small numbers that he is not noiced by casual observers. The fact that the clerids can now be seen by the dozen is a good sign that the bark beetles will have a rough time. That the clerid is tough hombre is evident in a small jar at forest headquaters where several clerids and other beetles were imprisoned for identification. Lacking bark beetle steaks, they promptly attacked one another and have eaten about half their own number.

The commnoly known bark beetles are the western pine beetle, the mountain pine beetle, Jeffrey pine beetle and numerous species of the genus "Ips." All of these are native beetles which in nature appear to have the normal function of delivering the coupe de grace to decadent trees which have lived their allotted life span and don't know enough to die and let the youngsters have the ground. Like other devices of nature, this one is erratic and ruthless.

At times climatic conditions and the general level of resistance of the trees to attack are such that the bark beetles suddenly build up in abnormal numbers. Then there is not enough food in decadent trees, so the bugs are forced to buck the odds of fighting the heavy flow of pitch in thrifty trees. Many are overcome by pitch but eventually a brood can establish itself in a tree and kill it.

Sooner or later the climate, the build up of predators, such as the clerids, and other factors again work against the bark beetles and bring their numbers back in line. When this occurs, the food supply of predaceous beetles such as the clerids is also limited and they decline in numbers. Maybe some enterprising garden club could interest our red-bellied friends in eating earwigs in the meantime.

Anyway, long live "Enoclerus Speghus!"

Aged Tahoe Canine Pet Passes This Week

TAHOE CITY— The Duchess is no more.

The Duchess was one of the best known and most beloved dogs ever to make a home at Tahoe, having lived for some 13 years. She was the pet of Miss Carroll Raymond of Tahoe City, who has cared for the big, sad-eyed tawny-trimmed white St. Bernard for a number of years. Cary didn't adopt the dog, but she adopted Gary. She used to wander the shores of Kings Beach, stopping at each resort for a tidbit, and was loved by all.

Cary buried the Duchess beneath a towering pine near the Truckee River and as one little boy said wistfully, "She was so good, I just know she went to the doggie's heaven." And so she has.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

Spring fever finally got us and after fighting it off for awhile, we jumped in our horseless carriage and took a round about trip up the Redwood Highway, doubled back over 299 from Eureka to Redding, stopping en route to watch the first waters go over Shasta Dam since it was built. Interesting and beautiful sight Wasn't gone very long but stored up a little for the "pep bank" anyway—enough to face the summer with some energy after the winter siege. It takes a little while to get back in the swing of things and see what's cooking and what has been going on.

Starting at the top, Donner Ski Ranch's Jack Woodard journeys to San Francisco in connection with his expansion program — a new chair lift and a drive-in eatery. The "Ruck Sack" ski shop which swayed and buckled this past winter as it hid 'neath towering snow banks, is being moved toward the highway where it will be remodeled as the hub of the new drive-in

Lots of lumber piled about tells us that the following placse are about to either build on, fix up or remodel:

Hammer noises ring out around the Soda Springs Hotel and one thing we note being rebuilt is the stone patio outside of the rear coffee shop door, said patio, stones and all, giving up in defeat under the past winter's weight. Carpenters swarming around give testimony of more building to be done.

At Beacon Hill Lodge, Elmo Moriano gives in to the call of the sun and hires a crew to take care of the inside work whilst he labors on the dents, cracks, broken timbers and what not on the outside. Just now, with the white stuff relinquishing its hold and melting toward the rivers and creeks can snow weight's terrific damages be observed. The "back yard" of Beacon Hill is the observing point for the damages on this lodge and we can well remember a terrific crew of snow shovelers at this place, throwing snow UPWARDS from the second story of this hotel. Buckling floors, sway backde rafters, crazily leaning walls are not the exception in this country at present. A good example of snow wieght's work can be seen across from Beacon Hill, where Elmo's garage once stood. The pile of timber, iron and bent steel emerging from the snow bank is what is left.

Wanda and Virg Misener, refreshed from a nice long vacation, return to continue the finishing work on the inside of their Soda Springs home, built last summer.

Sounds of a tractor down the hill a bit tells us that Charlie Secco of Chantraella Lodge is pulling up the bent, crippled trees that pitifully hold each other up on the road's ledge. One fire hazard out of the way.

Next door to Chantarella, Ray Soroni, new owner of Pratt's Garage, does the necessary straightening up and cleaning up of his new premises whilst Janet Soroni, just moved in, gets ready to become a mountain neighbor as she fixes up her new home. The Soroni's two little boys will be new entrants in the Donner Trail School next fall.

At Donner Summit Lodge, Bill Rutherford and Chuck Reynolds return from Carmel where they helped famous George Harris celebrate a birthday in its early 80s. Both tanned, sparkling and rested looking, Bill and Chuck now take over while the Bud Horaks plan their vacation.

Steen's Snowtel at Kingvale sports a cute new animated sign—a full sized "cow gal" with a beckoning candle in hand invites the public to stop and enjoy comfort and hospitality and by the number of cars parked in front of this hostelry, guess the cow gal is earning her keep.

Old time perennial visitor, who has a site for a cabin on the Soda Springs side of the Yuba, Charlie Harshberger, wife and son, stopped en route to New York and Canada this past Sunday to inspect said site, look over the winter's debris, gab awhile and show off their new Cadillac.

Barbara and Bud Zorich, after vacationing in Amador County, return home with daughter, Debbie, who wintered with Grandpa and Grandma Burke in Plymouth.

A trip to Emigrant Gap on Monday took us into Widing's Rancho Sierra for a few minutes. Doc and Ruth tell us they are planning a trout farm for this interesting rancho. A corral set up in the pasture means that horses can be rented there, too.

Our trip to Emigrant Gap was in the interest of the mountain chamber of commerce still in its formative stages. Enthusiastic reports from that portion of the highway sing of good business—houses filled to capacity at night, good dining room business. The Monday automobiles parked at Nyack Lodge were plentiful. Sightseers along the Yuba were think, and a few days more of warm weather should stimulate a late fishing season. Which reminds us that Jim Haywood of Cisco Grove cuaght a 17-inch trout right off his front porch.

A journey into Kingvale Park Tract last Sunday reveals shocking damage. "Splinter City," portions of this tract can be called with debris piled high and but one steel girder exists of the bridge tha tjoins east and west Kingvale. Many homes are just emerging from snow banks. Dunc nad Helga Gillies got the first look at their cabin a few days ago and Homer Bales, old resident carpenter in the Kingvale Tract, was called back home post haste to start on a summer of nothing but repairs. Dunc and Helga report "all's well" with but a few sway backed girders and sunken corners of building. We inspected the old stamping grounds of our own family cabin and also find the same conditions — cracked fire place, sunken building corners, doors that refuse to open and buckling floors. We consider our damage slight when we gaze, open mouthed, at the raw carnage of this winter's blast in evidence all around our place. If you think we are exaggerating, take a run over the hill to the Kingvale subdivision, three miles west of Soda Springs.

Roy Thompson, in from the Cedars to pick up necessary parts and pieces for repair work at this isolated millionaire's hideaway, still trudges back and forth the full 20 miles round trip with ruck sack, reporting that drifts still exist along his arduous path at least ten feet high. Two miles out on this same county road, beautiful Ice Lakes waits serenely for the road to open. Mike Curtis, formerly of the Sierra Club, moves into Ice Lakes for the summer and takes in his gear with the help of Lloyd Van Sickle and, of all things in the merry month of June, his dog team!

Old timers scratch their heads and predict that last winter's snows will not likely entirely disappear before next winter's barrage of nature hits us again.

The spillway at the neck of Lake Van Norden opens up, after throttling the ice and snow jamb that held back its waters and the Yuba churns and roars as it carries the winter storage to the valley below, a beautiful sparkling sight.

Ralpn and Goldie Rowton return from a trip, beaming with pride for they have been to Stanford where they watched son Larry graduate with full honors and an engineering degree. We've reported Larry's progress from time to time and feel privileged to call this man a friend. When Larry he could claim for his education. but a few years of high school that signed up with Uncle Sam, he had Not a kid, Larry, with the encouragement of wife, Marj, started to reclaim the years by returning to high school. High school, junior college and now a degree from Stanford in four years. Larry goes to work now and then returns in the fall—back to school for his master's degree. Can't blame Ralph and Goldie for being beaming and prideful, can you?

Recently little Carl Nordstrom tacked up a sign in our store which read "CULB SCOUTS report to Box 688." Which meant that Carl was very much interested in a Cub Scout movement. Lots of cars in front of the Nordstrom menage recently meant that the "CULB SCOUT" movement is now underway. First thing these little "Culbs" ask is "When do I get my knife and axe?"

Happy to report Eula Sherritt looking better, back from the Tahoe Forest Hospital where husband Jim is a director. Another reason that Eula might look happy is the fact that daughter Naydene will pop in some time this week from New York for a visit with Eula.

Saw a television set at Soda Springs Hotel. 'Twasn't working but they have hopes.

Every June Bride Should Know

Yes, every June Bride should know about electricity. She should know that her "electric servants" are always ready and waiting to help run the household in the most efficient way possible.

She should also know that electricity is the biggest bargain on her budget. She'll be wise (and so will you) to rely on this tireless helper every day . . . in every way.

NORTH TAHOE

by THELMA BURROUGHS

The time draws near for that big time on the hill for all property owners and their guests—everyone in fact that can be directed up that way. On the evening of June 25 all proceeds from the three big clubs — Cal-Neva, Cal-Vada and North Shore Club — will go toward the purchase of fire fighting equipment for the area included in the North Tahoe Community Club boundary lines. Tickets are on sale at $10 each through all organizations affiliated with the Council of North Tahoe Organizations, or from any of the three committeemen as follows: Harry Stubley, Kings Beach, phone Brockway 52; Eugene Jarvis, Crystal Bay, phone Crystal Bay 107, or P. M. Burroughs, Tahoe Vista, phone Brockway 337J. This $10 ticket not only buys a fine dinner with a whole evening of floor show and other entertainment but many times more than its cost in fire protection. Let's all meet on the Hill ed clubs on that night—and bring at any one of the above mention- a friend.

One of the biggest events of importance for the entire Lake Tahoe area took place Friday noon, June 13, at the Brockway Hotel when the Lake Tahoe-Sierra Association held its annual meeting in conjunction with the Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of announcing the consolidation of these two organizaions.

H. O. Comstock presided, having at a former meeting of the two committees agreed to accept the chairmanship of the interim committee, consisting of 24 members, 12 from each organization affected. All details of consolidation and operation are being worked out by this committee and members advised of same by letter. It is expected that in early fall the nominating committee will offer the membership two names for each office to be filled through election. There are to be 16 directors, a president, first vice, second vice and treasurer. When these directors and officers are elected and installed the interim committee will cease to function. The consolidation of these two great organizations brings about our Tahoe-Sierra Chamber of Commerce to be in operation throughout the entire year for advancement of the lake area as a whole.

Among the speakers were Arthur Dudley, Sacramento Chamber of Commerce manager two years retired; George Kehlet, who touched briefly upon past work and achievement of the association, and Harry Stubley, who presented a short resume of chamber activities during its brief five years.

It is the gravely sincere hope of those interested in the promotion of our beautiful Lake Tahoe vacation land that this united cooperation of two effective organizations will lead to a greater benefit for all concerned.

Mrs. A. E. Abbott of Kings Beach attended the California-Nevada Conference of Methodist Churches at the College of Pacific last week in Stockton as a delegate from the Kings Beach church.

Dr. D. W. Throckmorton, district superintendent of the Methodist church of this area, will preach next Sunday at the Outdoor Chapel in Kings Beach.

Mrs. Doyle Barnett is confined to her home with a very painful attack of pure old flu.

Catherine Abbott knows that to slip and fall with an infant in your arms could result in much more serious injury than her sprained ankle, sustained when she fell, with little Mitchell, on last Tuesday evening.

Our recent snow storm sort of cleared our highway around the lake area of excess traffic and put up a lot of vacancy signs where none were in evidence when the storm came on. Let us keep having these sunny days again, please Mr. Weatherman.

Placer County supervisors voted 3 to 2 to pay a claim of $103.52 to Mr. nad Mrs. Carl H. McPhee for taxes paid on property in Tahoe Vista. Testimony presented to the board indicated the taxes had been paid under protest on an assessment of improvements that did not exist.

BOARD WILL STUDY TAHOE ZONING ON PERSONAL VISIT

AUBURN— Placer County supervisors will mkae their inspection of the eastern Lake Tahoe area proposet for rezoning next Friday, with a meeting scheduled for 1 p.m. at the point where the Truckee-Brockway road passes the golf links.

Originally planned for late July, the meeting was moved up because of possible July conflict with equalization matters.

Opponents of the proposed planning commission ordinance liberalizing restrictions on commercial units nad multiple purpose dwellings in the Tahoe Vista and Kings Beach district, won a delay on Jone 9 at a public hearing in Auburn. The board promised to make a personal inspection of the areas before reaching a decision.

Proponents of the measure contend the present ordinance should be changed because it restricts the growth of business in the area, known as Zone Six.

The changes have been recommended by the planning commission, following two public hearings on the matter.

FEW DAYS TO REST, HIKER DEPARTS WITH $2,000 ON HIM

NEVADA CITY— Otto Ringberg, 67, who was found wading in the river near Truckee with $2,000 in his shabby clothing on May 26, has gone on his way after successful treatment by Dr. W. W. Reed at Miner's Hospital.

As pieced togethre by the sheriff's staff, the fact were that Ringberg was a native of Germany; that he had been a shoemaker in Butte, Mont., for several years; that he stored his belongings there and left to search for another shoe repair location; that at Reno he became confused and started to cool his aching feet in the waters of the Truckee River.

It is assumed he walked along the river all the way to Truckee. When found, he was in a dazed condition, with huge blisters on his feet. He was physically exhausted.

Rest in the hospital brought him around. When he emerged, the sheriff had learned Ringberg had several bank accounts in Butte but no relatives in this country. His baggage was found at a bus depot in Reno.

Ringberg left Nevada City by bus this week for Sacramento to renew his search from there.

Tahoe Resort Employee Is Narcotics Suspect

MINDEN— Wilson Pete, also known as Pete Wilson, was taken to Reno for arraignment on a charge of possessing marijuana.

Pete, a cook at a Lake Tahoe resort, was arrested on the California side of the lake during the weekend by sheriff's deputies. The officers said they found a dozen so-called "reefers" in his possession.

Washoe County authorities report Pete was sentenced to San Quentin prison in California in 1946 on an armed robbery charge and was paroled in 1949.

Besides the narcotics violation, Pete is said to be lacking in registration as an ex-covict, as required by Nevada law, officers say.

SAFE DRIVER

ARCHIE BERRY, Greyhound bus operator, who has a record of 20 years safe driving.

Driver Archie Berry, who has been operating buses in California since 1925, was the first Pacific Greyhound driver to go 20 years without a preventable accident.

This announcement was made this week by Robert E. Gocke, safety director for the company. He said Berry has been with Pacific Greyhound since its was organized in 1929 and was formerly a driver for California Transit Company, one of the bus lines that merged at that time to form Pacific Greyhound Lines.

He had earned successively a Hamilton watch for ten years of accident-free driving, a ruby ring for 15 years and a fine mantel clock for his latest record of 20 years.

Bus Driver Berry offers a few pointers on safe driving, whether in a bus or an automobile. Some of them are:

"Safety is a knack, or 'feeling', the driver must have within himself, and this feeling should be cultivated by constant vigilance.

"Watch the drivinf mistakes of others, and try not to duplicate them.

"Always fgiure that the other driver will do something wrong, then you will be better prepared to do the right thing when required.

"It never pays to take a chance. A few seconds lost in heavy traffic may mean several years of life for someone—maybe you."

New Tow Away Area In Bay Metropolis

SAN FRANCISCO— Non-commercial vehicles parked on the south side of Sutter Street, between Sansome and Jones Streets, between 4 and 6 p.m., will be towed away, Capt. Jack Eker, police traffic director, announced. Extension of the tow away area is on a trial basis but will become permanent if traffic flow is speeded up on this heavily hused thoroughfare, Eker said.

Each Sunday throughout the summer, the Music Festival Committee will cooperate with the recreation-park department in presentation of a series of light and grand operas, ballets and similar entertainment.

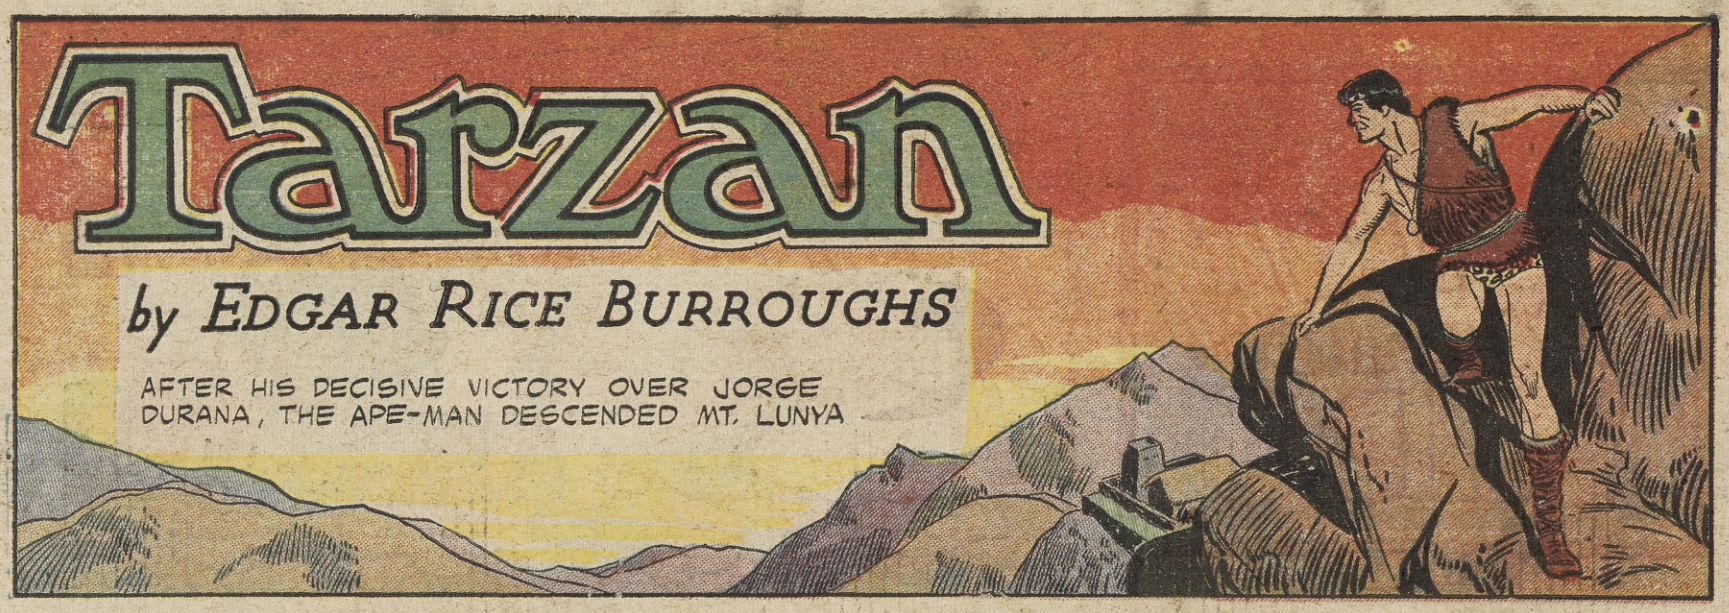
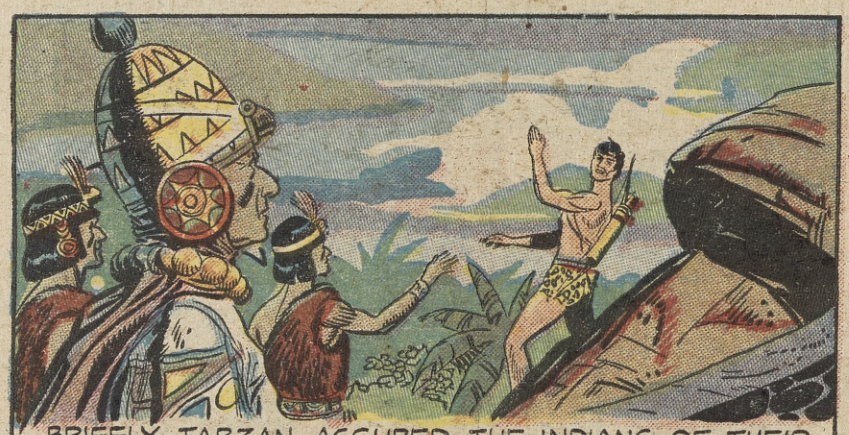
Tarzan

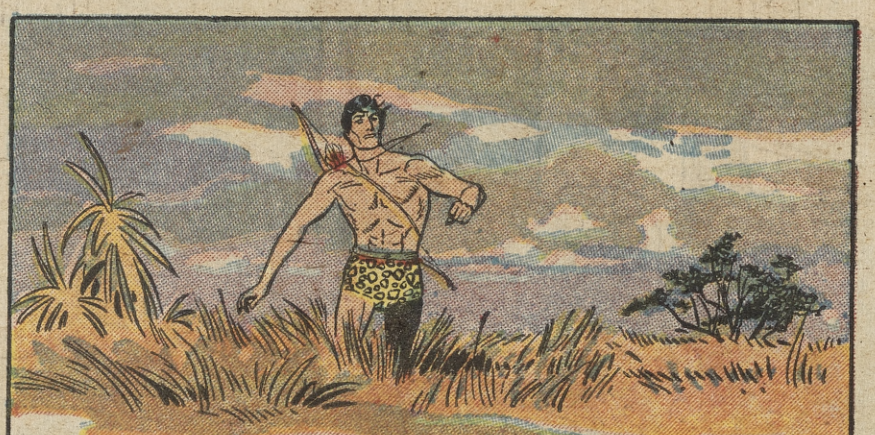
by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

AFTER HIS DECISIVE VICTORY OVER JORGE DURANA, THE APE-MAN DESCENDED MT. LUNYA

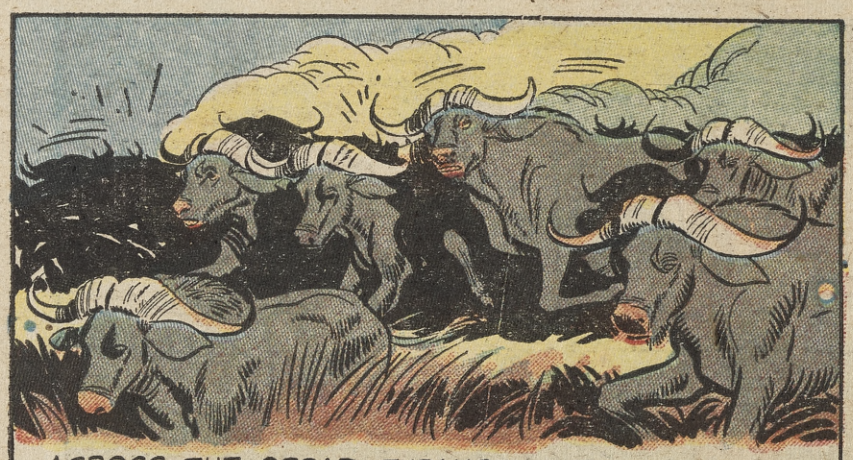




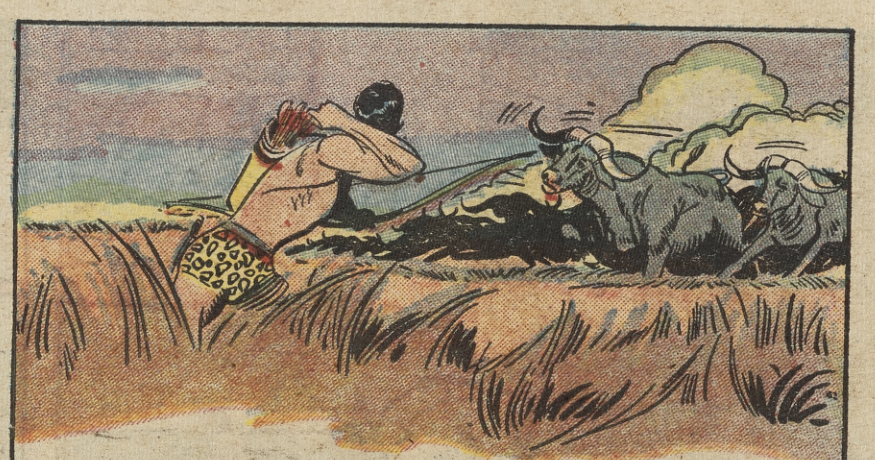
BRIEFLY, TARZAN ASSURED THE INDIANS OF THEIR SAFETY, ACCEPTED ONLY A BOW AS A TOKEN OF GRATITUDE, THEN DEPARTED. HE WAS EAGER TO RETURN TO HIS BELOVED JUNGLE.



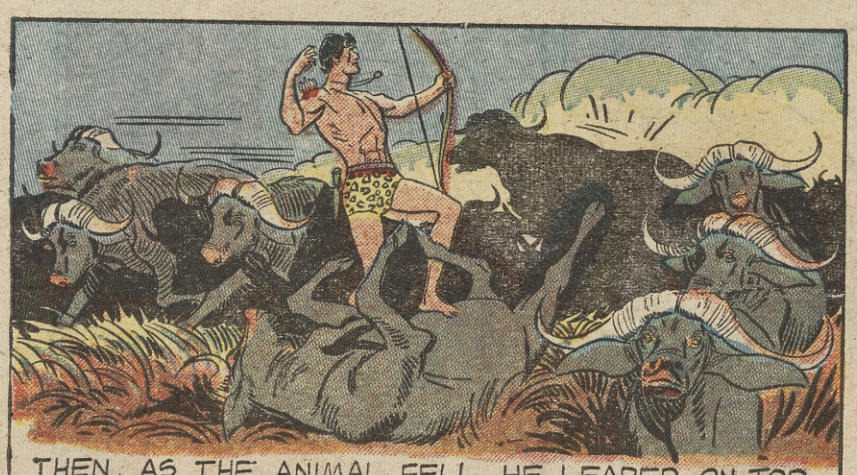
...DAYS LATER, HE TROTTED CONTENTEDLY THROUGH A VERDANT AFRICAN PLAIN -- BUT SUDDENLY HE STOPPED, CONCERNED BY A DISTANT RUMBLING --



ACROSS THE BROAD EXPANSE SURGED SCORES OF STAMPEDING BUFFALO -- AND THE TALL GRASSES HID HIM FROM THEIR VIEW!



THERE WAS BUT ONE CHANCE TO ESCAPE FROM BEING CRUSHED. HE QUICKLY SENT TWO ARROWS INTO THE LEAD BUFFALO --



THEN, AS THE ANIMAL FELL, HE LEAPED ON TOP OF THE CARCASS. THE OTHER BEASTS SAW HIM NOW, AND SWERVED TO EITHER SIDE!

... TARZAN PROCEEDED WARILY, FOR MILES. HE SNIFFED THE STIFLING BREEZE AND FROWNED. THERE WAS NO SCENT OF ANY LIVING CREATURE -- ONLY THE SCENT OF ... DEATH!
